Sermon: “Mission: For HIS Name is JEALOUS”

Reading: Exodus 34:14 &

Acts 17:24-28

Exodus 34:14

14 (for you shall worship no other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God),

Acts 17:24-28

24 The God who made the world and everything in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples made by man, 25 nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mankind life and breath and everything.

26 And he made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their dwelling place,

27 that they should seek God, and perhaps feel their way toward him and find him. Yet he is actually not far from each one of us,

28 for

“In him we live and move and have our being’; as even some of your own poets have said, “For we are indeed his offspring.’

Sermons on Audio

The Sunday Morning CHURCH SERMONS are posted to the Fennell Avenue Church website that have been recorded from this year.

<http://churchofchristfennellave.homestead.com/Sermons.html>

You will find our September 2021 edition at <https://gospelherald.org/>

This month features a collection of articles on unrelated subjects, submitted by a variety of contributors. Two of these continue discussions that was begun in recent issues, focusing on the book of Revelation and the Sermon on the Mount.

If you have been checking our website throughout the month, then you are aware that Harold Bruggen Jr. has passed away. Harold was a trustee with the Gospel Herald foundation, a regular contributor and the author supporting our subject category entitled "Thought for the Week". In his honour, we are publishing his last submission as our lead article this month. We encourage you to take a moment to read it and along with his obituary.

Please feel free to share our website with others and to embed a link to it from your congregation's website and social media platforms. We value your feedback which can be submitted to contactthegospelherald.org

Digital copies of some of our past publications are now available in our bookstore and can be purchases and downloaded from there.

Sincerely, Dave Knutson, Editor

Acts 16:16-24

The Paul and Silas in Prison

16 As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by fortune-telling.

17 She followed Paul and us, crying out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation."

18 And this she kept doing for many days. Paul, having become greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour.

19 But when her owners saw that their hope of gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers.

20 And when they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men are Jews, and they are disturbing our city.

21 They advocate customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to accept or practice."

22 The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates tore the garments off them and gave orders to beat them with rods.

23 And when they had inflicted many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to keep them safely.

24 Having received this order, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

We're celebrating 85 Summers of camp, and we're asking you to choose the new Camp Omagh logo.

Camp Omagh to Launch New Logo and Branding Campaign during the 'Camp Omagh 85' Celebrations

Milton, ON — August 14, 2021 — Camp Omagh announced today the launch of its new logo and branding campaign (Vote Camp Omagh 85), during the 'Camp Omagh 85' Celebrations. These changes come at a time when Camp Omagh is evolving its service offerings and expanding its reach.

“We’ve taken advantage of the COVID lockdown in the past 18 months and have accomplished a lot. Our plan is to improve our offerings to campers in 2022... broadening our footprint across 57 congregations,” said Sean Toohey, Camp Omagh’s President and P&M Committee Chair. “Our new branding and logo will appeal much better to all demographics, and will clearly set the tone for a more exciting and Christ-focused experience we plan to bring to campers for the 2022 season and beyond.”

Camp Omagh celebrates 85 summers of Christian teaching, fun and fellowship through camp living. The quote “the more things change, the more they stay the same” is a reference to situations where there appears to be a meaningful change, but the underlying fundamentals are still the same: Camp Omagh nurtures growing faith in God while developing friendships and enjoying God’s creation.

The Camp Omagh logo was created over 45 years ago. It was, and is playful, and fitting for that time. But the times have changed. We’ve seen the logo evolved over the years from just simple lettering to wood carved letters. To the carved letters, we've added the glowing sun, and the tweeting bird we know today — which worked for different purposes. But that meant that there was no brand cohesion, and no cohesion means no perceived brand value, and no brand value means it’s not speaking to the intended audience.

We’ve created a few new, and more cohesive visual identities/logos. And like countless other rebrands, when it comes to feedback on the new logo we are pretty divided. We have 2 new logo choices, and we're leaving it up to the 57 congregations to step in and give their own two-cents on which of the two we should use as the new Camp Omagh logo - Vote Camp Omagh 85.

The entire month of September 2021 is ‘Vote Camp Omagh 85’. Each participating congregation gets one vote. Each congregation’s vote will be posted on the ‘campomagh.org’ website. After a winner is chosen, you’ll see all the other visuals around Camp Omagh aligning around this new direction: on the website, on socials, in advertising, and on products. It’s still us. We’re still Camp Omagh. More visually appealing, more consistent and, we hope, more instantly recognizable.

See your local Camp Champion to learn more information. See you in January, when we will select the T-shirt colours for 2022!

Worship Service Protocols

Entrance will be by the Fennell Avenue door. Please exit by the doors on the East 27th entrance. Those who require the Ramp entrance off the parking lot may use this entrance to enter and exit the building.

The washroom upstairs and in the Basement are available to use. Please use the hand sanitizer when you enter and leave the building. We ask that you do not linger in the building after the worship time is complete and follow the arrows on the floor to enter and exit.

When you enter from the Fennell entrance, there will be communion items available on the table. Please pick up your Communion cups which will contain a bread wafer and grape juice and proceed to the seating area. If you prefer to bring your own communion items, you are welcome to do that. Please choose your seat while being particular to social distance from other members. Masks are required within the church building. If you do not have one, there will be a supply of masks available for members to use. We will not be singing during the worship time, but some Acapella music will be played.

If you are not feeling well, please stay home. The worship service will be available on Zoom also and you are welcome to join the Zoom meeting.
