Sermon: “Unto the Hills”

Reading: Psalm 121: 1-8

My Help Comes from the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

121 I lift up my eyes to the hills.

From where does my help come?

*² My help comes from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.*

*³ He will not let your foot be moved;
he who keeps you will not slumber.*

⁴ Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

*⁵ The LORD is your keeper;
the LORD is your shade on your right hand.*

*⁶ The sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.*

*⁷ The LORD will keep you from all evil;
he will keep your life.*

⁸ The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore

Sermons on Audio

The Sunday Morning CHURCH SERMONS are now posted to the Fennell Avenue Church website that have been recorded from this year.

<http://churchofchristfennellave.homestead.com/Sermons.html>

You will find our September 2021 edition at <https://gospelherald.org/>

This month features a collection of articles on unrelated subjects, submitted by a variety of contributors. Two of these continue discussions that was begun in recent issues, focusing on the book of Revelation and the Sermon on the Mount.

If you have been checking our website throughout the month, then you are aware that Harold Bruggen Jr. has passed away. Harold was a trustee with the Gospel Herald foundation, a regular contributor and the author supporting our subject category entitled "Thought for the Week". In his honour, we are publishing his last submission as our lead article this month. We encourage you to take a moment to read it and along with his obituary.

Please feel free to share our website with others and to embed a link to it from your congregation's website and social media platforms. We value your feedback which can be submitted to contactthegospelherald.org

Digital copies of some of our past publications are now available in our bookstore and can be purchased and downloaded from there.

Sincerely, Dave Knutson, Editor

Acts 16:25-40

The Philippian Jailer Converted

The Philippian Jailer Converted

²⁵ About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them,

²⁶ and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were unfastened.

²⁷ When the jailer woke and saw that the prison doors were open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

²⁸ But Paul cried with a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here."

²⁹ And the jailer^[a] called for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas.

³⁰ Then he brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

³¹ And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household."

³² And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. '

³³ And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds; and he was baptized at once, he and all his family.

³⁴ Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God.

³⁵ But when it was day, the magistrates sent the police, saying, "Let those men go."

³⁶ And the jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go. Therefore come out now and go in peace."

³⁷ But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, men who are Roman citizens, and have thrown us into prison; and do they now throw us out secretly? No! Let them come themselves and take us out."

³⁸ The police reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Roman citizens.

³⁹ So they came and apologized to them. And they took them out and asked them to leave the city.

⁴⁰ So they went out of the prison and visited Lydia. And when they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them and departed.

we're asking you to choose the new Camp Omagh logo.

Camp Omagh to Launch New Logo and Branding Campaign during the 'Camp Omagh 85' Celebrations

Milton, ON — August 14, 2021 — Camp Omagh announced today the launch of its new logo and branding campaign (Vote Camp Omagh 85), during the 'Camp Omagh 85' Celebrations. These changes come at a time when Camp Omagh is evolving its service offerings and expanding its reach.

“We’ve taken advantage of the COVID lockdown in the past 18 months and have accomplished a lot. Our plan is to improve our offerings to campers in 2022... broadening our footprint across 57 congregations,” said Sean Toohey, Camp Omagh’s President and P&M Committee Chair. “Our new branding and logo will appeal much better to all demographics and will clearly set the tone for a more exciting and Christ-focused experience we plan to bring to campers for the 2022 season and beyond.”

Camp Omagh celebrates 85 summers of Christian teaching, fun and fellowship through camp living. The quote “the more things change, the more they stay the same” is a reference to situations where there appears to be a meaningful change, but the underlying fundamentals are still the same: Camp Omagh nurtures growing faith in God while developing friendships and enjoying God’s creation.

The Camp Omagh logo was created over 45 years ago. It was, and is playful, and fitting for that time. But the times have changed. We’ve seen the logo evolved over the years from just simple lettering to wood carved letters. To the carved letters, we've added the glowing sun, and the tweeting bird we know today — which worked for different purposes. But that meant that there was no brand cohesion, and no cohesion means no perceived brand value, and no brand value means it’s not speaking to the intended audience.

We’ve created a few new, and more cohesive visual identities/logos. And like countless other rebrands, when it comes to feedback on the new logo, we are pretty divided. We have 2 new logo choices, and we're leaving it up to the 57 congregations to step in and give their own two-cents on which of the two we should use as the new Camp Omagh logo - Vote Camp Omagh 85.

The entire month of September 2021 is ‘Vote Camp Omagh 85’. Each participating congregation gets one vote. Each congregation’s vote will be posted on the ‘campomagh.org’ website. After a winner is chosen, you’ll see all the other visuals around Camp Omagh aligning around this new direction: on the website, on socials, in advertising, and on products. It’s still us. We’re still Camp Omagh. More visually appealing, more consistent and, we hope, more instantly recognizable.

See your local Camp Champion to learn more information. See you in January, when we will select the T-shirt colours for 2022!

Worship Service Protocols

Entrance will be by the Fennell Avenue door. Please exit by the doors on the East 27th entrance. Those who require the Ramp entrance off the parking lot may use this entrance to enter and exit the building.

The church basement will be off limits – no entrance to the basement. The washroom upstairs and in the Basement are available to use. Please use the hand sanitizer when you enter and leave the building. We ask that you do not linger in the building after the worship time is complete and follow the arrows on the floor to enter and exit.

When you enter from the Fennell entrance, there will be communion items available on the table. Please pick up your Communion cups which will contain a bread wafer and grape juice and proceed to the seating area. If you prefer to bring your own communion items, you are welcome to do that. Please choose your seat while being particular to social distance from other members. Masks are required within the church building. If you do not have one, there will be a supply of masks available for members to use. We will not be singing during the worship time, but some Acapella music will be played.

If you are not feeling well, please stay home. The worship service will be available on Zoom also and you are welcome to join the Zoom meeting.
