This month features a collection of articles on unrelated subjects, submitted by a variety of contributors. Two of these continue discussions that was begun in recent issues, focusing on the book of Revelation and the Sermon on the Mount.

If you have been checking our website throughout the month, then you are aware that Harold Bruggen Jr. has passed away. Harold was a trustee with the Gospel Herald foundation, a regular contributor and the author supporting our subject category entitled "Thought for the Week". In his honour, we are publishing his last submission as our lead article this month. We encourage you to take a moment to read it and along with his obituary.

Please feel free to share our website with others and to embed a link to it from your congregation's website and social media platforms. We value your feedback which can

Acts 17:1-9

Paul and Silas in Thessalonica

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 And Paul went in, as was his custom, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures,

3 explaining and proving that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ."

4 And some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, as did a great many of the devout Greeks and not a few of the leading women.

5 But the Jews were jealous, and taking some wicked men of the rabble, they formed a mob, set the city in an uproar, and attacked the house of Jason, seeking to bring them out to the crowd.

6 And when they could not find them, they dragged Jason and some of the brothers before the city authorities, shouting, "These men who have turned the world upside down have come here also,

7 and Jason has received them, and they are all acting against the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus."

8 And the people and the city authorities were disturbed when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken money as security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

Camp Omagh to Launch New Logo and Branding Campaign during the ‘Camp Omagh 85’ Celebrations

Milton, ON — August 14, 2021 — Camp Omagh announced today the launch of its new logo and branding campaign (Vote Camp Omagh 85), during the ‘Camp Omagh 85’ Celebrations. These changes come at a time when Camp Omagh is evolving its service offerings and expanding its reach.

“We’ve taken advantage of the COVID lockdown in the past 18 months and have accomplished a lot. Our plan is to improve our offerings to campers in 2022... broadening our footprint across 57 congregations,” said Sean Toohey, Camp Omagh’s President and P&M Committee Chair. “Our new branding and logo will appeal much better to all demographics and will clearly set the tone for a more exciting and Christ-focused experience we plan to bring to campers for the 2022 season and beyond.”

Camp Omagh celebrates 85 summers of Christian teaching, fun and fellowship through camp living. The quote “the more things change, the more they stay the same” is a reference to situations where there appears to be a meaningful change, but the underlying fundamentals are still the same: Camp Omagh nurtures growing faith in God while developing friendships and enjoying God’s creation.

The Camp Omagh logo was created over 45 years ago. It was, and is playful, and fitting for that time. But the times have changed. We’ve seen the logo evolved over the years from just simple lettering to wood carved letters. To the carved letters, we've added the glowing sun, and the tweeting bird we know today — which worked for different purposes. But that meant that there was no brand cohesion, and no cohesion means no perceived brand value, and no brand value means it’s not speaking to the intended audience.

We’ve created a few new, and more cohesive visual identities/logos. And like countless other rebrands, when it comes to feedback on the new logo, we are pretty divided. We have 2 new logo choices, and we're leaving it up to the 57 congregations to step in and give their own two-cents on which of the two we should use as the new Camp Omagh logo - Vote Camp Omagh 85.

The entire month of September 2021 is ‘Vote Camp Omagh 85’. Each participating congregation gets one vote. Each congregation’s vote will be posted on the ‘campomagh.org’ website. After a winner is chosen, you’ll see all the other visuals around Camp Omagh aligning around this new direction: on the website, on socials, in advertising, and on products. It’s still us. We’re still Camp Omagh. More visually appealing, more consistent and, we hope, more instantly recognizable.

See your local Camp Champion to learn more information. See you in January, when we will select the T-shirt colours for 2022!
