Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-8

The Resurrection of Christ

15 Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand,

2 and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain.

3 For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures,

4 that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures,

5 and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.

6 Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep.

7 Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles.

8 Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me.

April 2022 ISSUE

The April 2022 issue of the Gospel Herald Magazine is now available at our website at <https://gospelherald.org/>

This is a theme issue focused on the apostle Paul's 2nd letter to the church at Thessalonica. When in that city on his first visit, Paul's mission team was accused of 'having turned the world upside down' (ASV), saying that there is another king - Jesus.

As we publish this month, our world seems once again 'turned upside down'. When men and women go their own way, God's way will always seem wrong-side-up.

Our articles this month seek to restore God's way by highlighting a few of the things that the Lord's apostle to Gentiles wrote so long ago.

Please share our website with your friends

The Storm at Sea

21 Since they had been without food for a long time, Paul stood up among them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me and not have set sail from Crete and incurred this injury and loss. 22 Yet

now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. <sup>23</sup> For this very night there stood before me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I worship, <sup>24</sup> and he said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar. And behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.' <sup>25</sup> So take heart, men, for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told. <sup>26</sup> But we must run aground on some island."

<sup>27</sup> When the fourteenth night had come, as we were being driven across the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors suspected that they were nearing land. <sup>28</sup> So they took a sounding and found twenty fathoms. A little farther on they took a sounding again and found fifteen fathoms. <sup>29</sup> And fearing that we might run on the rocks, they let down four anchors from the stern and prayed for day to come. <sup>30</sup> And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship and had lowered the ship's boat into the sea under pretense of laying out anchors from the bow, <sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved." <sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the ship's boat and let it go.

<sup>33</sup> As day was about to dawn, Paul urged them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you have continued in suspense and without food, having taken nothing. <sup>34</sup> Therefore I urge you to take some food. For it will give you strength, for not a hair is to perish from the head of any of you." <sup>35</sup> And when he had said these things, he took bread, and giving thanks to God in the presence of all he broke it and began to eat. <sup>36</sup> Then they all were encouraged and ate some food themselves. <sup>37</sup> (We were in all 276 persons in the ship.) <sup>38</sup> And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea.

Worship Service Protocols

Entrance will be by the Fennell Avenue door. Please exit by the doors on the East 27th entrance. Those who require the Ramp entrance off the parking lot may use this entrance to enter and exit the building.

Please use the hand sanitizer when you enter and leave the building.

When you enter from the Fennell entrance, there will be communion items available on the table. Please pick up your Communion cups which will contain a bread wafer and grape juice and proceed to the seating area. If you prefer to bring your own communion items, you are welcome to do that. Please choose your seat while being particular to social distance from other members. Masks are no longer required within the church building, but you may wear if you wish. If you do not have one, there will be a supply of masks available for members to use. We will not be singing during the worship time, but some Acapella music will be played.

If you are not feeling well, please stay home. The worship service will be available on Zoom also and you are welcome to join the Zoom meeting.
