Sermon: “It was Mamma”

Readings: 2 Timothy 1:3-5

³ I thank God whom I serve, as did my ancestors, with a clear conscience, as I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. ⁴ As I remember your tears, I long to see you, that I may be filled with joy. ⁵ I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, dwells in you as well.

2 Timothy 3:14-15

¹⁴ But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom^[a] you learned it

¹⁵ and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

MAY 2022 ISSUE

The May 2022 issue of the Gospel Herald Magazine is now available at our website at

<https://gospelherald.org/>

This issue offers a selection of articles with something for everyone.

With prices rising and the economy in flux the subject of 'tithing' may be the last thing on our minds. Yet as Ed Broadus explains in his timely article, the principles upon which tithing is based are alive and well, with lessons for us all.

In an article about 'self-defence', Kevin Cleare begins a 3-part series exploring this question as it pertains to individuals, to society and to relations between nations.

While some churches are falling all over themselves to be friendly, can it be that as the Lord's church we have given up on good old fashioned hospitality? Tim Johnson encourages a renewal of this very personal ministry in the name of the Lord.

Brian Thompson highlights the value of looking ahead instead of living in the past.

And...what would a New Testament church look like in the 21st Century?

We hope that these articles will stimulate your thinking and encourage your study of just what it is that the New Testament teaches.

Paul Arrives at Rome

Acts 28: 11-16

¹¹ After three months we set sail in a ship that had wintered in the island, a ship of Alexandria, with the twin gods^[a] as a figurehead. ¹² Putting in at Syracuse, we stayed there for three days. ¹³ And from there we made a circuit and arrived at Rhegium. And after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli. ¹⁴ There we found brothers^[b] and were invited to stay with them for seven days. And so we came to Rome. ¹⁵ And the brothers there, when they heard about us, came as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns to meet us. On seeing them, Paul thanked God and took courage. ¹⁶ And when we came into Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself, with the soldier who guarded him.
