Sermon: “Zacchaeus: A Story of Salvation”

Reading: Luke 19: 1-10

Jesus and Zacchaeus

19 He entered Jericho and was passing through.

2 And behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich.

3 And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small in stature.

4 So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was about to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today."

6 So he hurried and came down and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all grumbled, "He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner."

8 And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold."

9 And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

MAY 2022 ISSUE

The May 2022 issue of the Gospel Herald Magazine is now available at our website at <https://gospelherald.org/>

This issue offers a selection of articles with something for everyone.

With prices rising and the economy in flux the subject of 'tithing' may be the last thing on our minds. Yet as Ed Broadus explains in his timely article, the principles upon which tithing is based are alive and well, with lessons for us all.

In an article about 'self-defence', Kevin Cleare begins a 3-part series exploring this question as it pertains to individuals, to society and to relations between nations.

While some churches are falling all over themselves to be friendly, can it be that as the Lord's church we have given up on good old fashioned hospitality? Tim Johnson encourages a renewal of this very personal ministry in the name of the Lord.

Brian Thompson highlights the value of looking ahead instead of living in the past.

And...what would a New Testament church look like in the 21st Century?

We hope that these articles will stimulate your thinking and encourage your study of just what it is that the New Testament teaches.

Please share our website with your friends

Paul in Rome

Acts 28: 17-30

<sup>17</sup> After three days he called together the local leaders of the Jews, and when they had gathered, he said to them, "Brothers, though I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. <sup>18</sup> When they had examined me, they wished to set me at liberty, because there was no reason for the death penalty in my case. <sup>19</sup> But because the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar—though I had no charge to bring against my nation. <sup>20</sup> For this reason, therefore, I have asked to see you and speak with you, since it is because of the hope of Israel that I am wearing this chain.” <sup>21</sup> And they said to him, “We have received no letters from Judea about you, and none of the brothers coming here has reported or spoken any evil about you. <sup>22</sup> But we desire to hear from you what your views are, for with regard to this sect we know that everywhere it is spoken against.” <sup>23</sup> When they had appointed a day for him, they came to him at his lodging in greater numbers. From morning till evening he expounded to them, testifying to the kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets. <sup>24</sup> And some were convinced by what he said, but others disbelieved. <sup>25</sup> And disagreeing among themselves, they departed after Paul had made one statement: “The Holy Spirit was right in saying to your fathers through Isaiah the prophet:

<sup>26</sup> “Go to this people, and say, “You will indeed hear but never understand, and you will indeed see but never perceive.” <sup>27</sup> For this people's heart has grown dull, and with their ears they can barely hear, and their eyes they have closed; lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them.’

28 Therefore let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will listen.”
