June 2022 ISSUE

We are now about midway through our calendar year and wanted to notify you that the June issue of the Gospel Herald is available at our website at <https://gospelherald.org/>

In this issue, Geoff Ellis begins a series of article submissions entitled “Charles Gordon McPhee, Canadian Preacher.” (photo above).

This series of five articles begins with Geoff’s own early recollections of the person and work of brother McPhee.

Other articles this month:

- Is Personal Self-Defence Morally Right - Part 2 Kevin Cleary
- Spiritual Leadership in the Church David Knutson
- What Should Christians Learn from the Sabbath? Edwin Broadus
- Jesus Heads Toward Jerusalem Art Ford
- April a Month of Holidays (missions report) Thayer Salisbury

Worship Service Protocols

Entrance will be by the Fennell Avenue door. Please exit by the doors on the East 27th entrance. Those who require the Ramp entrance off the parking lot may use this entrance to enter and exit the building.

When you enter from the Fennell entrance, there will be communion items available on the table. Please pick up your Communion cups which will contain a bread wafer and grape juice and proceed to the seating area. If you prefer to bring your own communion items, you are welcome to do that. Please choose your seat while being particular to social distance from other members.

Masks are no longer required within the church building, but you may wear if you wish. If you do not have one, there will be a supply of masks available for members to use. We will not be singing during the worship time, but some Acapella music will be played.

If you are not feeling well, please stay home. The worship service will be available on Zoom also and you are welcome to join the Zoom meeting.
