Sermon: “Deception”

Reading: 2 Peter 1:16-21, 2:1-11

2 Peter 1:16-21

Christ's Glory and the Prophetic Word

16 For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17 For when he received honor and glory from God the Father, and the voice was borne to him by the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased," 18 we ourselves heard this very voice borne from heaven, for we were with him on the holy mountain. 19 And we have the prophetic word more fully confirmed, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts, 20 knowing this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone's own interpretation. 21 For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

2 Peter 2:1-11

False Prophets and Teachers

2 But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. 2 And many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of truth will be blasphemed. 3 And in their greed they will exploit you with false words. Their condemnation from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep. 4 For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to chains of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment; 5 if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; 6 if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly;

7 and if he rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked 8 (for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); 9 then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, 10 and

July 2022 ISSUE

Dear Members,

The July issue of the Gospel Herald is available at our website at <https://gospelherald.org/>

In this issue, Geoff Ellis continues the story of C.G. McPhee's origins in Nova Scotia, his early schooling with influences from O.E. Tallman and O.H. Tallman along with his first efforts in ministry. The editorial continues a discussion of Leadership in the church, turning attention to congregations operating without benefit of elders and deacons. This is also a 'Theme Issue' focused on the Book of Exodus.

Theme Articles include:

- Introduction to Exodus Paul Birston
- Lessons From the Plagues Thayer Salisbury
- Divided Waters Tim Johnson
- Exodus 26: The Tabernacle Sam Mulligan

Please share our website with your friends

David Knutson, Editor.

Worship Service Protocols

Entrance will be by the Fennell Avenue door. Please exit by the doors on the East 27th entrance. Those who require the Ramp entrance off the parking lot may use this entrance to enter and exit the building.

When you enter from the Fennell entrance, there will be communion items available on the table. Please pick up your Communion cups which will contain a bread wafer and grape juice and proceed to the seating area. If you prefer to bring your own communion items, you are welcome to do that. Please choose your seat while being particular to social distance from other members.

Masks are no longer required within the church building, but you may wear a mask if you wish.

If you do not have one, there will a supply of masks available for members to use. We will not be singing during the worship time, but some Acapella music will be played. If you are not feeling well, please stay home. The worship service will be available on Zoom and you are welcome to join the Zoom meeting.
