Thanksgiving and Prayer

¹⁵ For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God's people, ¹⁶ I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers. ¹⁷ I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit^[a] of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better. ¹⁸ I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people, ¹⁹ and his incomparably great power for us who believe. That power is the same as the mighty strength ²⁰ he exerted when he raised Christ from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, ²¹ far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every name that is invoked, not only in the present age but also in the one to come. ²² And God placed all things under his feet and appointed him to be head over everything for the church, ²³ which is his body, the fullness of him who fills everything in every way.

Greetings from 'cool' Lae. It is 30C as I sit down to start writing this (and 86% humidity). It is the 'wetter' season here right now, but it hasn't been very wet this year. All of the rain seems to be hitting Australia instead.

This will be my last newsletter for a while because I'M GOING HOME!!!! (the Canadian one, not the Heavenly one!). Thank you for your ongoing prayers. After a lot of Covid-related hoops and frustrations, and not a little amount of prayer on my part and by others, I'm set to travel to Port Moresby on August 7th and to Brisbane the next day. Looking forward to time with friends there before continuing the journey on August 15th, arriving in Toronto on the 16th. In all of my outbound trips (this will be #12), I've never been more ready for some time out. July marks 4 years since the start of my last leave, and 30 years since I arrived in P.N.G. the very first time!
