One in Christ

¹¹ Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called “the uncircumcision” by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands—

¹² remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.

¹³ But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

¹⁴ For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility

15 by abolishing the law of commandments expressed in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace,

16 and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby killing the hostility.

24/07/22

Greetings from 'cool' Lae. It is 30C as I sit down to start writing this (and 86% humidity). It is the 'wetter' season here right now, but it hasn't been very wet this year. All of the rain seems to be hitting Australia instead.

This will be my last newsletter for a while because I'M GOING HOME!!!! (the Canadian one, not the Heavenly one!). Thank you for your ongoing prayers. After a lot of Covid-related hoops and frustrations, and not a little amount of prayer on my part and by others, I'm set to travel to Port Moresby on August 7th and to Brisbane the next day. Looking forward to time with friends there before continuing the journey on August 15th, arriving in Toronto on the 16th. In all of my outbound trips (this will be #12), I've never been more ready for some time out. July marks 4 years since the start of my last leave, and 30 years since I arrived in P.N.G. the very first time!
