Mark your Calendars: The Fenwick congregation is having Jerry Tallman teach from October 18 to 21 in an evangelism workshop entitled, "God's Eternal Plan." If you have heard Jerry before, you know it will be well worth the drive along Highway 20 to Fenwick.

Men's Meeting: The next men's Meeting is scheduled for Tues. Oct. 13 at the Jaggard home. Please mark this day on your calendars.

WAVES: The Beamsville, Grimsby, Tintern Waves are looking to replace their table cloths for the catering events. They run about $20.00 each. If you or anyone you know would like to contribute to this, could you please contact Val at 905-682-8162 by Oct 9th?

New Bible Study Time: Art has had a request from some who find it difficult to get out in the evenings for our mid week Bible Study to have a day-time basic Bible Study at some point during the week. Plans are to begin a gathering at the building for a Bible Study during the week of October 18. It will happen either Mondays or Wednesdays (likely in the morning) throughout the school year.

The study will be open to any members and their friends who would like to open their Bibles and learn more. We will determine a specific format with those who attend.

If you think you would like to participate, please let Art know. As well, please be prepared to state your preference as to day of the week and time.

Bramalea Church of Christ to celebrate 40th

TWO MEN OWNED farms side by side...

One was a bitter atheist, the other a devout Christian. Constantly annoyed at the Christian for trusting God, the atheist said to him one winter, "Let's plant our crops as usual this spring, each the same number of acres. You pray to God, and I'll curse Him. Then come October, let's see who has the bigger and better crop."

When October came the atheist was delighted because his crop was larger. "See, you fool," he taunted, "what do you have to say for your God now?"

"My God," the other farmer replied, "doesn't settle all of His accounts in October."

"Because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by raising Him from the dead." Acts 17:32; cf. 2 Peter 3:9; Romans 2:5-6
