THE TWELVE-YEAR-old boy papered his bedroom walls with sports clippings of his favourite sports hero...

Then at age 14, much to his delight, he actually got to meet him. To his astonishment, and beyond his wildest dreams, this was not a one-time opportunity. His hero took him under his wing and spent quite a bit of time with him. They loved to go fishing together. However, after awhile, the boy began to notice that the more time they spent together the more he saw the difference between the image and the actual man. Upon closer inspection, he learned that his hero was not all that he thought him to be. In fact, years later, as he spoke to an audience of how he got a closer and closer look at the man he once idolized, he confessed, "And the nearer I got, the smaller he became." He went on to say to that same audience, "Then I learned about Jesus, and have spent the last thirty-five years drawing closer to Him. And you know what I have discovered? I find that the nearer I get, the bigger He becomes!

As one takes a closer look at the miracles of Jesus, he discovers that the closer he looks at these miracles, the bigger Jesus becomes. (B. J. Clarke)

"And truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name" (John 20:30-31).
