Speaker: Nathan Brown

Sermon: “The Son Who Shines Like the Son”

Reading: Revelations 1:12-20

Revelations 1:12-20

.¹² Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me, and on turning I saw seven golden lampstands,

¹³ and in the midst of the lampstands one like a son of man, clothed with a long robe and with a golden sash around his chest.

¹⁴ The hairs of his head were white, like white wool, like snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire,

¹⁵ his feet were like burnished bronze, refined in a furnace, and his voice was like the roar of many waters.

¹⁶ In his right hand he held seven stars, from his mouth came a sharp two-edged sword, and his face was like the sun shining in full strength.

¹⁷ When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. But he laid his right hand on me, saying, "Fear not, I am the first and the last,

¹⁸ and the living one. I died, and behold I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of Death and Hades.

¹⁹ Write therefore the things that you have seen, those that are and those that are to take place after this.

²⁰ As for the mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands, the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

The July 2021 edition of the Gospel Herald is now available,

You will find it at <https://gospelherald.org/>

The theme for both July and August is "Treasures of Wisdom in the New Testament". Five articles appear this month and will be followed by four more in August. Our contributors have drawn their material from the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus' Parables, the book of James and the book of Revelation. Special thanks to each of them for their contribution and to Paul Birston for organising these two themed issues.

Please feel free to share our website with others and to embed a link to it from your congregation's website and social media platforms. We value your feedback which can be submitted to contactthegospelherald.org

Digital copies of some of our past publications are now available in our bookstore and can be purchased and downloaded from there.

Sincerely,

Dave Knutson, Editor

Acts 13:1-12

Barnabas and Saul Sent Off

13 Now there were in the church at Antioch prophets and teachers, Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a lifelong friend of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them."

3 Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

Barnabas and Saul on Cyprus

4 So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

5 When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had John to assist them.

6 When they had gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they came upon a certain magician, a Jewish false prophet named Bar-Jesus.

⁷ He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of intelligence, who summoned Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God.

⁸ But Elymas the magician (for that is the meaning of his name) opposed them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

⁹ But Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him.

¹⁰ and said, “You son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, full of all deceit and villainy, will you not stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord?

¹¹ And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you will be blind and unable to see the sun for a time.” Immediately mist and darkness fell upon him, and he went about seeking people to lead him by the hand.

¹² Then the proconsul believed, when he saw what had occurred, for he was astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

Singspiration is back!

Please join us for our first (and hopefully only) social-distanced Singspiration out at Camp Omagh on August 1st at 3 pm. Bob Sandiford will once again be leading this outdoor event and we will be practicing social distancing outdoors. If the weather does not cooperate, we will try again the following week on August 8th at the same time. Check our website / social media at 1 pm on August 1st to verify we'll be going ahead or switching to August 8th.

Please note that we will not be providing food this year, most buildings will be closed, however, the washroom building will be available.

Please pre-register ahead of time at:

<https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/singspiration-tickets-162440366509>

We will only be allowing 60 pre-registrations to ensure that social distancing can be achieved.

On the day of the event, please bring a copy of your ticket, masks, comfortable chairs to sit in, drinks and snacks, and a copy of “Songs of Faith and Praise” if you have one.

Hope to see and hear you all soon!

Sean Toohey

Camping at Camp Omagh

Camp Omagh is not able to operate their regular programs this summer. The camp is offering camping to families that would like to spend some time with their families at Camp.

The information below has been sent out to congregations regarding this opportunity. If you would like to take advantage of this, please contact the camp via the link included in the information below
